

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

STATE PROSECUTOR SELECTION AND DISABILITIES COMMISSION

VACANCY: MARYLAND STATE
PROSECUTOR

LOCATION: TOWSON, MARYLAND

CLOSING DATE: OCTOBER 1, 2010

Robert Rohrbaugh has submitted his resignation as the Maryland State Prosecutor, creating a vacancy for that position. This vacancy will be filled by appointment by Governor O'Malley.

To be considered for this appointment, applicants must have actively practiced law in the State of Maryland for at least 5 years.*

The State Prosecutor Nominating Commission will be accepting applications for this vacancy. Any lawyer interested in the appointment to this vacancy should download a personal data questionnaire from the Maryland State Bar website at www.msba.org. The personal data questionnaire is also available upon written or e-mail request.

The completed data questionnaire and two writing samples should be sent electronically to j.maloney@montgomerycountymd.gov. Send written request to receive a questionnaire to John Maloney, Chairperson, State Prosecutor Nominating Commission, c/o Montgomery County State's Attorney's Office, 50 Maryland Ave., Rockville, Maryland 20850.

All applications to this vacancy must be received by 5:00 pm on Friday October 1, 2010. Questionnaires received after closing date will be considered late and will not be accepted.

(*)See Maryland Code Title 14. Office of State Prosecutor for a full description of position responsibilities.